

MOVEUX

Carrie Hadley is the Owner and Creative Director of INDIEHOUSE fragrances. She owns two locations, one in Alpharetta, Georgia and one in midtown, Atlanta, GA.

MICROBEEK

As a Perfumer, Ms. Hadley is an artist who is trained in depth, on the concepts of fragrance aesthetics. She has a keen knowledge of a large variety of fragrance ingredients and their smells, she is able to distinguish each one alone or in combination with others.

Having studied the art in Europe, Ms. Hadley has now brought the concept to the United States. Her goal is to show her clients how to experience the fragrance niche at luxury brick and mortar locations. She plans to expand her growing business to more states across America.
